This microfilmed collection includes papers of or about Samuel MILLER, from the Brock Collection, Box 103, Huntington Library, San Marino, California.

SAMUEL MILLER (1792-1869)

Samuel MILLER, the son of Jane (or Jennie) MILLER, was born 30 June 1792, in Albemarle County, Virginia. He came to Lynchburg at the age of eighteen to work for a merchant. By the time he reached the age of thirty-one years, he had amassed a large fortune. He founded the Lynchburg Female Orphan Asylum. He died 27 March 1869 in Lynchburg. In his will he devised property to the City of Lynchburg for the establishment of Miller Park and for the construction of the College Hill Reservoir. He also left an endowment for the establishment of the Miller Manual Labor School in Albemarle County.
