

JONES MEMORIAL LIBRARY
2311 MEMORIAL AVENUE
LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA 24501

(434) 846-0501

COLLETTE FAMILY GENEALOGICAL PAPERS

The collection includes Ruth Burton COLLETTE's manuscript, Here We Are, tracing the COLLETTE, HENDRICKS, BURKE and BURTON families and allied lines. Other items included are research notes from the various states whose libraries she visited, papers such as land transfers and wills of her various ancestors, and a genealogy of the COLLETTE family.

BOX 1    Here We Are manuscript

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1-1 Collette genealogy                            | 1-9 Tennessee research notes              |
| 1-2 Isaac Collet (ca 1760-1809)                   | 1-10 Virginia research notes              |
| 1-3 Abraham Collet (1781-1847)                    | 1-11 North Carolina research notes        |
| 1-4 John E. Collet (1822-1903)                    | 1-12 South Carolina research notes        |
| 1-5 Ellen H. Collette (1862?-1933)                | 1-13 Daughters of the American Revolution |
| 1-6 Herman D. Collette (1893-1960)                | 1-14 Correspondence                       |
| 1-7 Ruth Burton Collette (1917- )                 | 1-15 Miscellaneous                        |
| 1-8 Collette descendants 20 th century |   |

- BOX 2
- 2-1 Cobbs miscellaneous court records
  - 2-2 Hendricks genealogy & miscellaneous court records
  - 2-3 Hudson genealogy
  - 2-4 Stephen Jones genealogy & miscellaneous court records
  - 2-5 McIntosh, miscellaneous notes and court records
  - 2-6 Morrow: deed from Robert & Chanie Morrow to James Morrow
  - 2-7 Singletary miscellaneous data & court records
  - 2-8 Stonecipher miscellaneous data & court records
  - 2-9 Sutton military and court records
  - 2-10 Whitworth miscellaneous court records
  - 2-11 "Beginning With Pepin" by Ruth B. Collette [Farrar/Ferrer/Farrer]

RUTH BURTON COLLETTE (1917- )

Ruth Burton Collette began researching her family in 1982. Her research took her to the states of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee, as far back as Abraham Collet, who was born about 1710.

MS1274