LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA, BRANCH
NATIONAL LEAGUE OF AMERICAN PEN WOMEN

The Lynchburg, Virginia, Branch of the National League of American Pen Women was organized on 23 May 1958, with five charter members, "to promote creative and educational activities in Art, Letters and Music...by bringing together, for their mutual professional and financial benefit, women engaged in the creative work of pen, pencil or brush." The Lynchburg Branch has sponsored many lectures and exhibitions in the Lynchburg area.
