

(Nov. 15th) - Mrs McNamee also made motion (carried) that they be paid - a motion was made by Mrs Mollie Lowry (carried) that baskets of fruit be sent to the Veterans for Thanksgiving.

Mr. H. M. Davis spoke in behalf of the Community Chest Drive.

U. D. C. Objects: Miss Mary Mc Cue, Ch. stated that the Chapter had paid up most of the Funds fairly well. Mrs. Davis reported that out of the 32 members of the C. of C. Chapter, 27 were present for their last meeting.

Mrs. Sp. H. of Educational Com. stated that of the two scholarships secured for boys at colleges - one did not accept the one at the U. of Virginia.

Mrs. Sp. H. read a letter from the Fort Hill Club members, saying they were glad for the Chapter to see they had home, and also, extended a very gracious invitation to use it again anytime in the future.

The A. P. Hill Circle - Mrs. Vinable, Chr. had charge of the program.
 Mrs. W. A. Woodruff gave a paper on Sydney Lanier and Miss Spriggs gave a paper on numbers, with Mrs. Frank Jackson, at the piano - These were very much enjoyed, and a ringing vote of thanks was extended them. The Veterans were guests of honor at this meeting, which made it all the more interesting. Very delightful refreshments were served to the 70 members present after which the meeting adjourned.

Recd. submitted,
 Mrs. Arthur E. Stump,
 Secy.

December meeting of O. D. C. - 1934

The December meeting of O. D. C. of U. D. C. was held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Maher, Dec. 13 - 1933. At 3:30 P.M. with the John McCausland Circle, Mrs. Maher, Chr. as hostess. The ritual was read with Mrs. Bowles, leader, followed by reading of the minutes. By the Secretary's report showed $180.50 in bank -

A previous motion had been made and carried that our president's expenses be paid by the Chapter, to the Baltimore Convention.

This motion was rescinded, since our president declined to accept - another motion was made and carried by Mr. Wiggins, that this last motion be accepted to rescind the previous one. Mrs. Jackson, Chr. of the veterans - stated that baskets of fruit were sent ten (10) by the Veterans for Thanksgiving. Decision was made in regards to giving the Veterans a dinner at the Carroll Hotel Thursday Dec. 21st. at 12 o'clock. In case of bad weather; baskets of fruit be sent there.

Of Cor. Secty's report showed that 8 letters had been written during the month, and birthday cards were sent to the Veterans.

Mrs. Tricannon (Treas.) stated that she had sent 26 cards to Veterans out of town.

Mrs. Evans - Registry - reported that she had delivered the following blanks: To Mrs. Fulks for Mrs. Janie Ware - for Mrs. Burgess to Mrs. Whittaker, (Fort Hill) for Mrs. Younger to Mrs. A. B. Sandidge Vermont Ore. None of these had been returned, so far, an application blank was also sent to Mrs. V. C. Robertson 1516 - 16th St. at the request of Mrs. Anderson, Recorder of Graces, Mrs. Tyree said she hoped to have at least two or three "Bestivals" for January - Historical markers - Mrs. Bowles, Chr. reported that no thanks had been returned to her, as yet, but would like to have them sent in as soon as possible, so she could send them away.

Mrs. Brown stated that Mrs. Anderson wanted to express her appreciation thru her, for the kindness shown she and her daughter - Mrs. Bishop from the Chapter, during their illness.

Mrs. John W. Davis reported a splendid meeting of the Children of the Confederacy Chapter, that 26 out of the 32 members were present - she said they had made plans for remembering the Veterans at Christmas, by sending fruits and candy and a small cake to C. G. W. Wood (the Grandfather of their Chapter). There are 10 living Veterans in Lynchburg. She also reported that one new member had been brought in at each meeting and asked that the month be changed from December to some other month - for their entertaining.

Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Wiggins and Mrs. Rice gave very splendid reports from the Convention in Baltimore - stating that Virginia received 8 prizes - and that Mrs. Whitcomb Anderson - received the prize again this year, for having the most papers correct, sent in from any Chapter. I also letters to Mrs. Wiggins - one from a son of a Veteran in Lexington, Va. The other from a Confederate Dancer Her, from Missouri, commending her upon her stand - at the Convention in Baltimore in regard to saluting the Confederate flag - and her loyalty to the Confederacy & paper read by the Secretary.

Mrs. DeWitt, at the request of Mrs. Almond asked that the Chapter investigate about pensions for widows - especially in regards to funeral expenses for them. Mrs.
 Davis and the children had charge of the program - Christmas songs and poems were given - explanation of the different Confederate flags - and a poem - "all silent along the Cottons" by Katharine Davis, were thoroughly enjoyed - by the 45 members present. There were 18 of the children present a rising vote of Thanks was extended to them

Mrs. Ball - Cor. Secty - was authorized to write Mrs. Washin, who was ill at this time.

After very delightful refreshments, and each daughter presented with a red candle, from the children, - the meeting adjourned - to meet next with the Robert E. Lee Circle -

Resp. submitted
 Mrs. Arthur E. Stump,
 Secty -

January meeting of C. D. C. - 1934

The January meeting of C. D. C. of the K. D. C. funds held at the Elks Club - Jan. 19 - 1934 - at 3:30 P.M. Reading of the minutes were approved - Treas. report showed one hundred ninety-seven dollars, twenty-nine cents ($197.29) in bank - Members who have not paid their dues, were urged to do so - as tapes for the membership of the Chapter have to be sent in soon -

Historian, Mrs. Paris - stated that she had seen Mr. Carmichael, Supt. of schools, in regards to the prizes of $2.50 being offered by the Chapter - for the best Essay on: "War Between the States;" in the Senior and Jr. High schools and that he appreciated the offer - also that he, and the teachers, would co-operate in every way possible - Mrs. Paris also stated that she would have the subjects for Essays for the Daughters, typewritten and ready for distributing at the next meeting - and hoped that many would try for the prizes this year - since only one Essay was sent in from the Chapter last year -

Registry - Mrs. Evans, reported that she had delivered blanks to Mrs. Lloyd Kelly at the request of Mrs. D. C. Jackson - had received Mrs. Irving's papers and had filed them at the library, her certificate, however, has not, as yet, been received - also that she had Mrs. Ethel Davis' papers in hand.

A motion was made - (Mrs. Wiggins) carried, that a letter of thanks be written to Mrs. James Henry Parker, of N. Y. in acknowledgment of the pieces sent in to the Chapter, in order to be able to salute the Confederate flag (verbally) as well as the U. S. flag. A letter from Mrs. Anderson was read, expressing her appreciation to the Chapter for the lovely flowers sent for the funeral of her daughter, Mrs. Ciesop - also the many kindnesses shown them by the Daughters.

A new magazine to take the place of "The Confederate Veteran" which was discontinued some time ago, is to be started soon - the first issue of the publication (for which a name has not yet been chosen) will come from the press about March 1 - Mrs. Claudia Hagy, recording Secretary of the 7th Division is also the business manager of the magazine. Mrs. Albert Sydney Porter will head the staff of editors as editor-in-chief with offices at Wytheville, Va.

The magazine will be devoted not only to the departmental work of the organization but will be a magazine of Southern literature as well. A prize is being offered for the best name for this magazine. Address communications to: Miss Claudia Kacy, Wytheville, Va.

Mrs. Wiggins read a letter from Miss Thronie Marsh of Sydenham Bay, N. Y.

The G. E. Lee Circle Mrs. J. A. Reese, Chr. had charge of the program. A salute to the flag was given, after which a Cross of Honor was awarded.

Mrs. Carrie Heath Hudnall a nurse, who served eight months on the front - during the World War.
 She being in California and unable to attend the Cross was presented to her sister - Miss Pattie Heath, by Mrs. Johnson.
 Miss Heath expressed her appreciation, and also her sister's. The Veterans were guests of honor, there being 10 present - and also three real Daughters of the 60's Mrs. Higgins, Mrs. John Campbell and Mrs. J. L. Witt.
 This being the birthday of Gen. Lee, Jackson and Mearns, a joint celebration was held - Dr. Ernest Campbell gave an address on: "The Undying Spirit of Lee" - Miss Lory gave three Southern songs, with Mrs. Staples at the piano - a reading by Miss Jessie March - and "Stone-wall Jackson's Way" by Miss Louise Blunt, after which the "Veterans gave the "Rebel yell" 55' members and guests enjoyed this occasion, after which delightful refreshments were served and a social period followed. The meeting adjourned to meet next with the J. E. B. Stewart Circle -

Resp. submitted,
 Mrs. Arthur C. Stimp,
 Secty.

February meeting of O. D. C. - 1934.

at the regular meeting of the O. D. C. of the O. D. C. which met at the Post Bill Club, February 14th - 1934 - at 3:30 P. M. Mrs. D. C. Jackson, Vice Pres. presided in the absence of the President - Mrs. Johnson. After reading of the Ritual, the business session passed, as usual reading of the minutes were approved, and Treasurer's report showed two hundred, nineteen dollars, thirty-six cents ($219.36) in cash.

Mrs. Davis reported the Children of the Confederacy in good condition, stating that they had paid all of their obligations, giving five dollars ($5.00) in all to the different Funds. Two new members have been added - each veteran was sent a Valentine and Com. Wood was sent a telegram. The C. of C. Chapter sent in a letter, advancing the name of Sydney Lanier for the "Bag of Fame".

 Mrs. Paris, Historian, stated that she had conferred with Mr. Cornickel, Supt. of Schools and that he thought the subject: "Was Gettysburg the States" too hard for the students, and that another subject should be selected. She had copies of subjects for the Essays, which were distributed among the members - she urging the Daughters to write as many as possible. Some Essays are open to outsiders while one is open to all college students - the subject being: "The Guiding Spirit of Lee". The largest amount is $20.00 reserved for these prizes. She also stated that she had sent letters to Dr. Jack, Dr. Brundley and Dr. Meta Glass, in regards to getting the students interested in these Essays.

Motions were made (carried) that the Chapter continue all donations to the various Funds:

Mrs. S. H. Chaires Mem. Fund	$5.00
Janet Randolph Bell	" 10.00
Jefferson Davis Hist. Foundation	2.50
Epitaphia - Blue Ridge Sanitarium	2.00
Stratford	5.00

Mrs. Finckham, Treas. stated that one hundred <sup>dollars</sup> ~~dollars~~ twenty-eight cents ($100.28) had been contributed toward Stratford from the Chapter.

Mrs. Ball, Cor. Secty. read cards and letters of acknowledging the letters of sympathy, which had been sent from the Chapter to the following:

Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. S. A.

Campfield and Miss Elizabeth Pettit, also, Mrs. Hall reported that she had written a note of thanks to Mrs. James Henry Parker, of N. Y. for the verses sent the Chapter, in regards to sailing the flag - and a card was read from Miss Claudia Wagy - Wytheville, Pa. in regards to subscriptions to "The Southern Magazine" this being published to take the place of the "Confederate Veteran". Mrs. E. B. Wiggins has been appointed Chr. of the Con. for the magazine, Mrs. E. N. Wise, asist Chr.

Mrs. Wise presented the name of a very worthy and nobby woman - Miss Sallie Ellis Davies, of Richmond, Pa. a former Lynch-burger. wanting assistance in placing her in the Confederate Home. a motion was made / Mrs. J. B. Davis (carried) that five dollars ($5.00) be given towards helping her, as a gift from the Chapter. A request from the W. E. School for books, anything pertaining to Southern literature for their library, has been received. Mrs. Fatorood sent a message, through Mrs. Walter Brown, to the Chapter saying she had missed being at the meetings and sent love to the members.

The J. E. B. Stewart Circle Mrs. Wilma Anderson, Ch. had charge of the program. This being Valentine Day, decorations were in keeping with the spirit. The Veterans were guests of honor. Mrs. Wiggins very graciously distributed gift certificates to each of the 9 Veterans present. Mrs. Finnamore acting for her.

Miss Helen Groves gave a reading - "How the Lanes Stakes were won" - Mrs.
 South read a paper on Stratford, and Mrs. Hall gave a paper on "J. E. B.
 Stewart": after which Mrs.
 Wiggins presented a picture of Stewart, which had been given her daughter, autographed by him. Mrs.
 McCalland sang two numbers, "A Sixthday" and "What's in the Air Today" accompanied by her daughter, Miss Madeline McCalland.
 All the Daughters joined in the singing of "Dixie" after which delicious refreshments and a social period followed. There were 50 present. The Chapter adjourned to meet next with the Nathan B. Forest Circle.
 Resubmitted,
 Mrs. Arthur E. Stump,
 Secty. -