OBJECTS.

The objects of this Chapter will be social, benevolent, historical and memorial. To accomplish these purposes it will endeavor—

FIRST. To bring into its organization a body of Confederate women who are eligible to membership, thereby uniting them more closely together by similar ties of loyalty to memories and principles, as are seen to bind together Confederate veterans and sons of veterans.

SECOND. To fulfill the duties of sacred charity towards Confederate veterans.

THIRD. To collect and preserve material for a true history of the war between the Confederate States and the United States of America; and to unite with the Confederate veterans in the determination that American history shall be properly taught in the public schools of the State. Also to use its influence towards attaining this object in all the private schools.

FOURTH. To erect monuments to the heroes of the Confederacy, or to assist in the erection of such to the extent of its ability, if desired by a majority of the Chapter.

 ELIGIBILITY.

Those women entitled to membership are the widows, wives, mothers, sisters, nieces and lineal descendants of such men as served honorably in Confederate Army, Navy and civil service, or of those persons who loyally gave material aid to the cause. Also women and their lineal descendants, wherever living, who can give proof of personal service and loyal aid to the Southern cause during the war.
