

FOREWORD

This entertainment is given by The Western Railway of Alabama Players, and is their contribution for the entertainment of United Confederate Veterans, Confederated Southern Memorial Association, Sons Confederate Veterans and their friends.

It is the policy of The Western Railway management to ascertain whom among the children of its employees display marked talent in music, art or drama. These children are given opportunity to cultivate their gifts and are taught by competent instructors without cost to them, many of whom are participating on this occasion.

This performance was arranged and is directed by Chester Wickersham Kitchings, grandson of Mr. Chas. A. Wickersham, President of The Western Railway of Alabama.

We wish to express our appreciation to The Western Railway of Alabama and its Players for their kindness to us on this occasion. We trust the memory of this entertainment may linger with you as one of the pleasing events of the Reunion.

Chairman Entertainment Committee,
The Forty-first Annual Reunion of Confederate Veterans.

THIS IS VIRGINIA

This is Virginia:
The Virginia of John Smith,
That mighty captain, who,
With a band of cavaliers,
Made the first permanent English settlement at Jamestown.

This is Virginia:
Where Pocahontas married John Rolfe,
And gave to him a son—
A son from whose line have sprung
Many of America's noblest men.

This is Virginia,
Where the first representative government
Was formed,
And where the planter settled;
Both a gentleman and nabob, he,
Who prayed, hunted, gamed, drank and raised tobacco,
And never once forgot
He was a gentleman.

This is Virginia,
Who, with her sister, southern States,
Seceded when she thought her constitutional rights
Were violated,
And who gave the world
Her Lee, the man since Christ,
The nearest yet to God!
And Jackson of immortal fame,
And to the lost cause she gave
The life blood of her sons.

This is Virginia,
Who, though wounded, lifted up her head
And forward marched—
Poor in purse, but rich in pride,
Rich in soul and rich in blood,
Rich in spirit and in service,
Rich in love and lore.

This is Virginia,
Who gave again
When the world was set aflame by war
And fought under the Stars and Stripes,
Which she had fought against;
Fought beside the British
Whose rule she had helped overthrow;
Fought hand in hand with France
As she had done before
For liberty—
For liberty, the dearest word in all languages.

RITUAL U. D. C.

(Prepared by Mrs. J. D. Beale, Montgomery, Ala., 1904)

President: "Daughters of the Confederacy, this day we are gathered together, in the sight of God to strengthen the bonds that unite us in a common cause; to renew the vows of loyalty to our sacred principles; to do homage unto the memory of our gallant Confederate soldiers and to perpetuate the fame of their noble deeds unto the third and fourth generation. To this end we invoke the aid of our Lord."

President: "Hear my prayer, O God; attend unto my prayer."

Response by all present: "From the end of the earth will I cry unto Thee, when my heart is overwhelmed; lead me to the rock that is higher than I."

President: "For Thou, Lord, are good and ready to forgive and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon Thee."

Response by all present: "Give ear, O Lord, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications."

PRAYER

(Composed by Bishop Ellison Capers, of South Carolina)

President: "Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we adore Thy love and Providence, in the history of our country, and especially would we thank Thee for our Confederate history.

"We thank Thee for its pure record of virtue, valor and sacrifice; and for the inspiring reflection that, despite its bitter disappointments and sorrows, it proclaims for us, to all the world, that we came through its years of trial and struggle with our battered shields pure, our character as a patriotic and courageous people untarnished, and nothing to regret in our defense of the rights and honor of our Southland.

"Give us grace, our Heavenly Father, faithfully to accept Thy will concerning us, and make us all to glorify Thee in a sincere obedience to Thy holy commandments, through the merits and meditation of Thy Son, our only Saviour, Jesus Christ."

Response by all present: "Amen."

(The President says the Lord's Prayer, followed by all present.)

Our Father which art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the Kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever, Amen.

President: "And now, by the authority in me, vested as President of the Virginia Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, I do hereby declare this convention open and ready for business."

Hymn: "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart
And hope to meet again.
