OLD DOMINION CHAPTER

LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA

Flags of the Confederacy

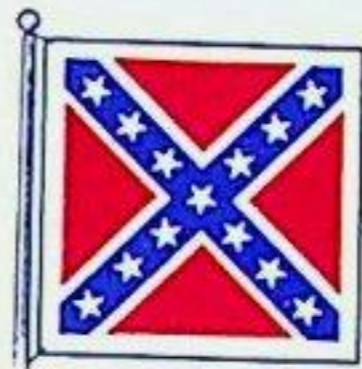

"And twill live in song and story
Though its folds are in the dust"

No. 1 The "Battle Flag" was designed by Gen. Beauregard, adopted by Gen. Joseph E. Johnston after the first battle of Manassas, and afterward adopted by the Confederate Congress. The reason for its adoption was, that in battle the "Stars and Bars" was frequently mistaken for the "Stars and Stripes." It remained as the "Battle Flag" until the close of the war.

No. 2 On March 4, 1865, the Confederate Congress adopted this design as the "National Flag" of the Confederate States, because the other, when limp, was too much like a flag of truce.

No. 3 On May 1, 1863, the Confederate Congress adopted this flag as the "National Flag."

No. 4 The "Stars and Bars" was the first flag of the Confederate States and was adopted by the Confederate Congress at Montgomery, Alabama.

Historical Book Presented

A historical book was given to Mrs. Joseph Wingfield, librarian of the Jones Memorial Library, by the Old Dominion Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the Jefferson Davis breakfast Monday at the James River Club.

The research and the project was started by the late Mrs. William F. Holt and has been carried on by members of the chapter. It is "Records of those blood kin to members of the Old Dominion Chapter UDC who served in World War II," and is a valuable document.

Featured on the program for the breakfast Monday was a quiz on Jefferson Davis' life conducted by Mrs. Richard W. Phillips Jr., retiring president. Nine members took part on the panel which dealt with Davis' childhood, boyhood, education at the United States Military Academy and his taking the office of president of the Confederate States and his later life.

Members of Virginia chapters of the UDC have been requested to donate more than 1,000 afghans, TV slippers and crutch pads for returning veterans, amputees, of the Vietnam war. Many members of the chapter are engaged in knitting these items.

Installation of officers was conducted by Katharine Gilbert, according to a service written by Mrs. John H. Davis. Newly named officers are: Ruth Burgess, president; Mrs. Davis, first vice president; Mrs. R. C. Callahan, second vice president; Mrs. Richard W. Phillips Jr., third vice president; Alice Krebs, recording secretary; Mrs. W. T. Zimmerman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. L. Jones, treasurer; Mrs. D. M. Davis, historian; Mrs. D. W. Cheatham, registrar; Mrs. W. Cabell Garbee, Recorder of Crosses; Mrs. Frank R. Barringer, pianist; Mrs. Howard Holmes, chaplain, and Mrs. L. D. Lacks, Custodian of Flags.

AROUND THE TOWN

UDC To Meet

Mrs. G. C. Wood of Homewood near Rustburg, will entertain members of the Old Dominion Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at her home.

The Founder's program will be featured with Mrs. John H. Davis, long a leader in the UDC, reading an account of her mother's work as a nurse during the Civil War. Mrs. Davis' mother, the late Mrs. August Forsberg, wrote of her experiences in her own handwriting. Mrs. Davis will speak from that paper.

Miss Ruth Burgess, president, will conduct the session at which delegates to both the state and national conventions will be elected.

UDC Chapter Holds First Meeting Of Fall

The Old Dominion Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held its first fall meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at "Homewood," Rustburg, the home of Mrs. G. C. Wood, chairman of the Matthew Fontaine Maury Circle which was hostess for the meeting.

Ruth Burgess, newly elected president, presided.

The social hour preceded the business session.

Reports of officers and chairmen were given and two new members were received into the chapter. It was announced twelve lap afghans have been knitted by members and friends and sent to California for the amputees from Viet Nam, and five members present had read a book on the Confederacy during the summer. Plans were made for the Christmas meeting when gifts are brought for the Veterans in Salem Hospital.

As September is the birth month of the United Daughters of the Confederacy the annual program of honoring the founders and reviewing the purposes and goals of the organization was presented in the form of a quiz conducted by Mrs. Evie F. Ewers and participated in by eight members.

The Historian General's subject for the month being "The Confederate Nurse," Mrs. John H. Davis gave the "Personal Reminiscences" of her mother who nursed in the Ladies' Relief Hospital all four years of the war. The Lynchburg Gas Office Building now occupies the site and is marked by a small bronze plaque.

Mrs. Davis' mother, Mrs. August Forsberg, related the hardships the ladies had in establishing the hospital; the scarcity of supplies; the total lack of antiseptics and sedatives; the bravery of the wounded men in their suffering, and mentioned four ladies who served faithfully and generously. They were Mrs. Lucy W. Otey who had seven sons in the Army; Mrs. John M. Speed, Mrs. Henry Lewis, and Mrs. Edward Norvell. There were many heart-breaking incidents given, as well as some humorous ones.

Delegates to the State Convention to be held in Front Royal Oct. 1-3, and the General Convention in Richmond, Nov. 9-14 were elected.

Delegates to the State Convention are Ruth Burgess, Katherine Gilbert, Mrs. James L. Jones, and Mrs. D. W. Cheatham and alternate delegates are Alice Krebs, Mrs. W. T. Zimmerman, Mrs. F. R. Barringer, and Mrs. Mary V. Doss.

Delegates to the General Convention are Katherine Gilbert, Ruth Burgess, Mrs. J. L. Jones, and Mrs. Evie F. Ewers, and alternate delegates are Mrs. Robert Pullin, Mrs. Cheatham, Mrs. T. B. Hunter, and Mrs. G. C. Wood.

UDC MEETING

Life Of Jackson Discussed

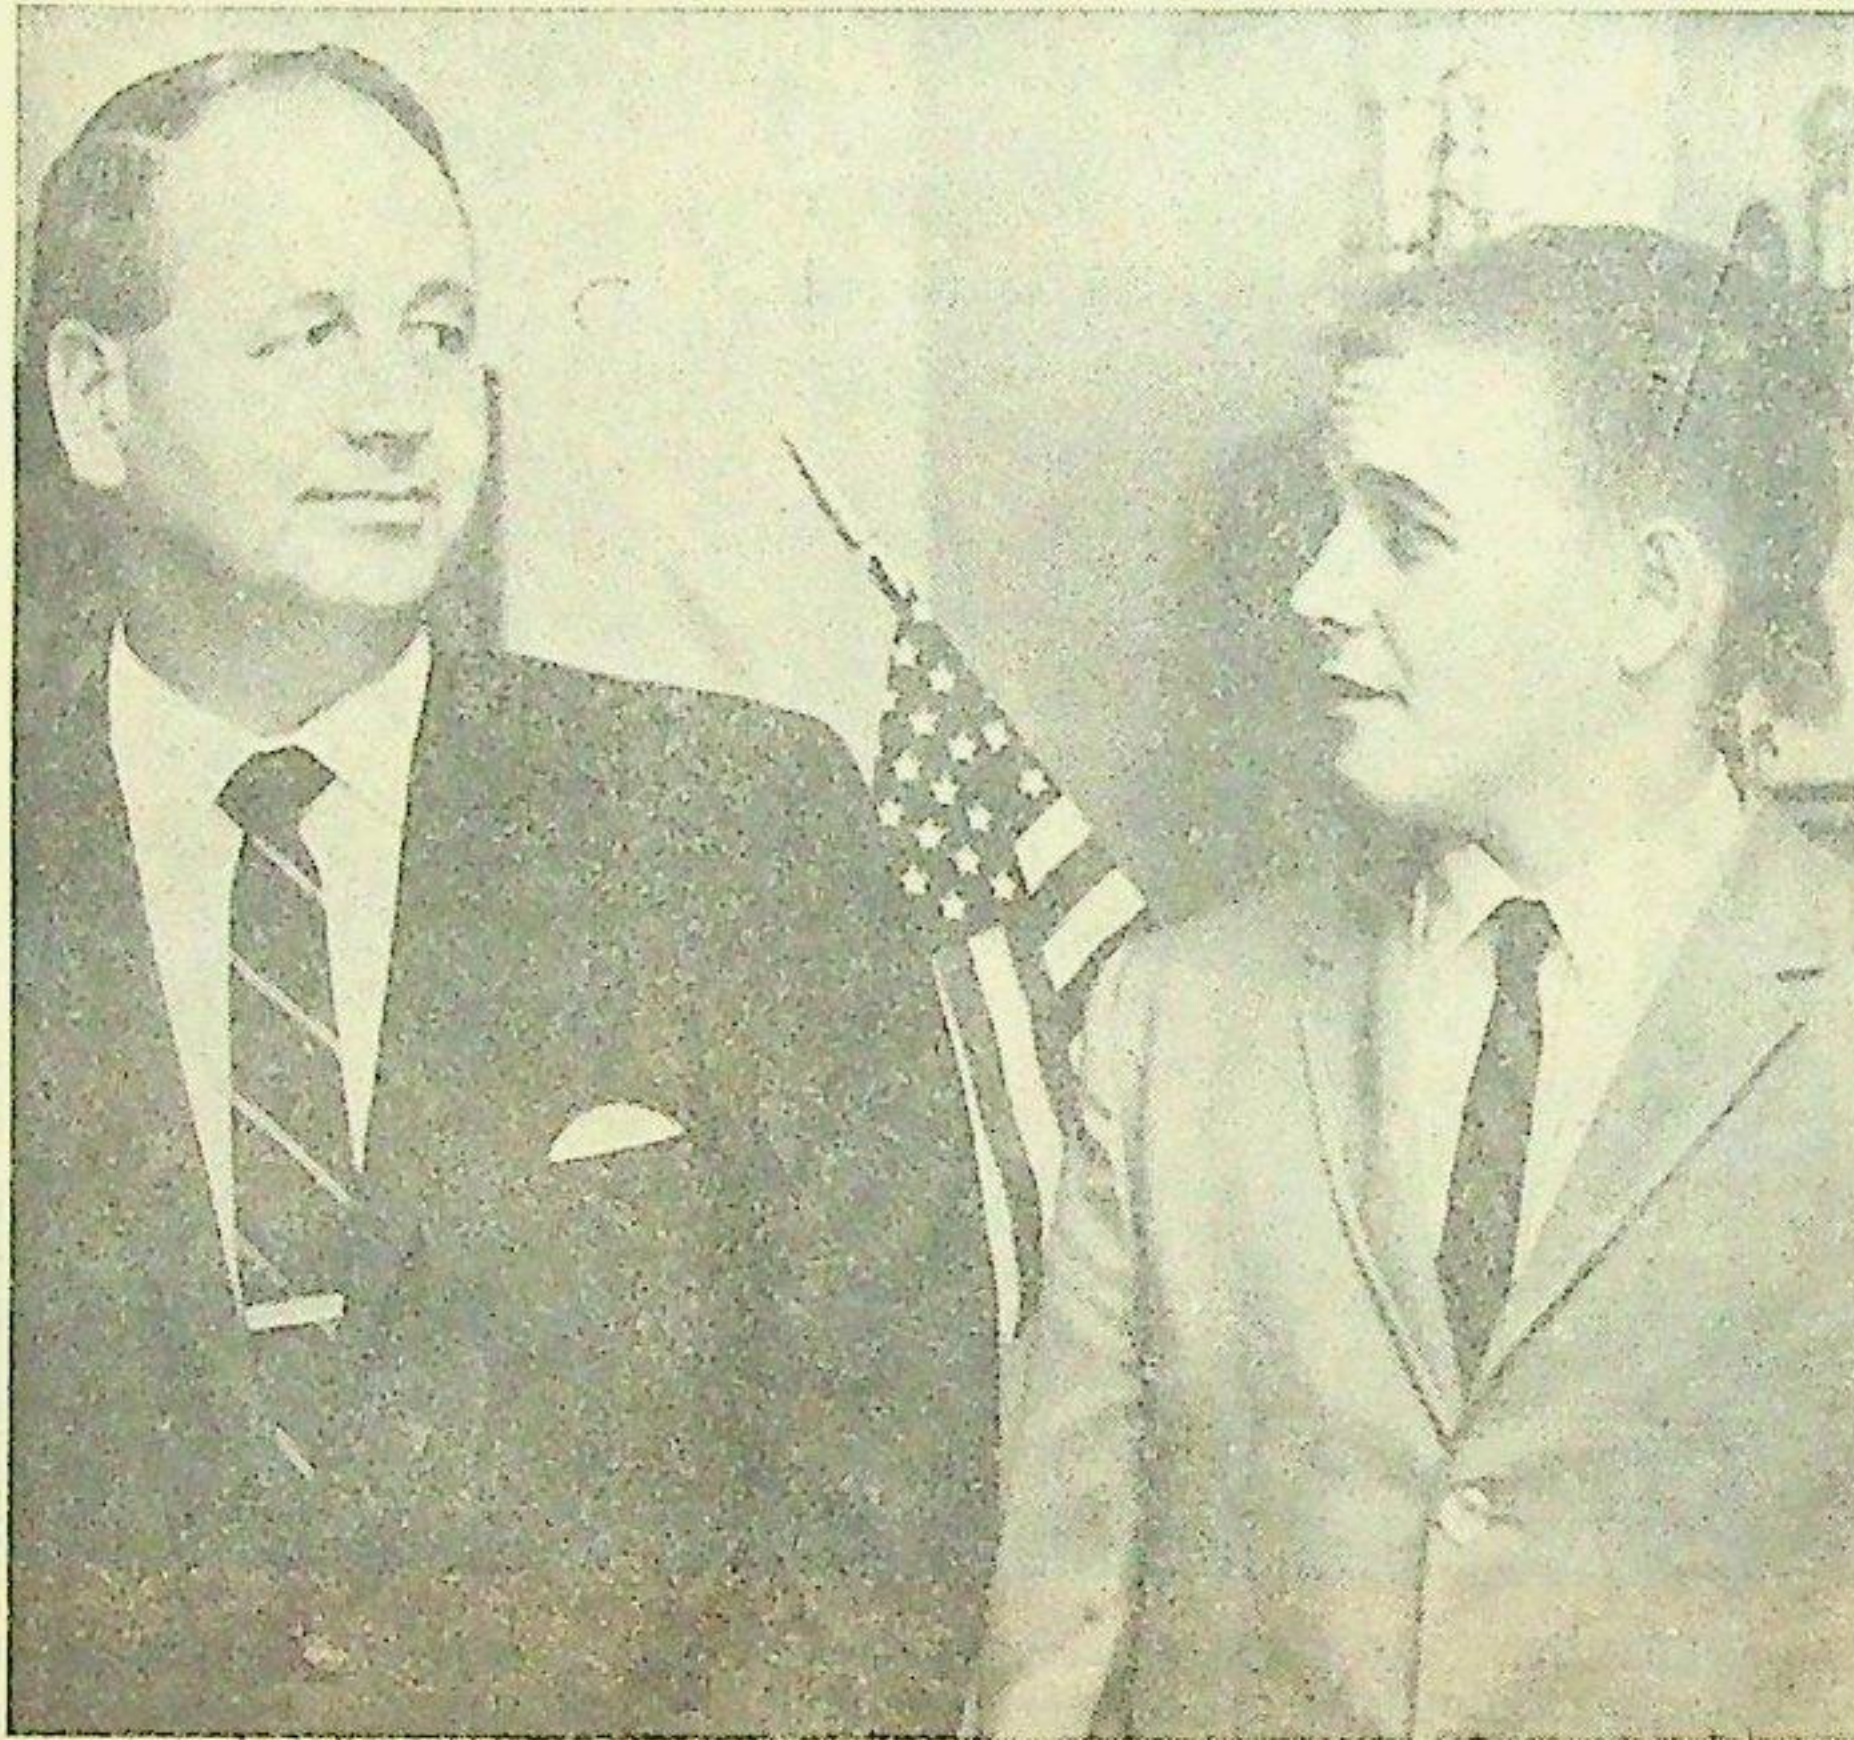

Mrs. G. C. McGehee of 2615 Rivermont Ave. was hostess for members of the Old Dominion Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at her home Wednesday afternoon. The program featured two talks on Stonewall Jackson and the Stonewall Jackson Circle, of which Mrs. A. Sidney Nowlin is chairman, was hostess for the social hour following.

Malcolm Burgess and his son, Malcolm Burgess Jr. spoke. Mr. Burgess discussed the general's life speaking on "Jackson as a Man," and his son spoke on "Stonewall Jackson's Youth."

Mr. Burgess quoted General Jackson who had remarked, "I have always wanted to die on Sunday," and the soldier's last words, "Let us cross over the river and rest in the shade of the trees...."

Miss Ruth Burgess, sister of Mr. Burgess, is president of the chapter and she, Miss Katherine Gilbert, Mrs. J. L. Jones and Alice Krebbs, each gave a highlight of the recent Virginia Division Convention of the UDC held in Front Royal. Miss Krebbs was an alternate representing Mrs. Patty Cheatham, who was unable to attend.

Announcement was made that two prizes were given to Old Dominion members at the convention. The first was the Sir Moses Ezekial award in honor of Mrs. John H. Davis, past president, now vice president of the chapter, and Mrs. L. D. Lacks won a prize for her essay on Albert Sidney Johnston of Kentucky.
