

JONES MEMORIAL LIBRARY
2311 MEMORIAL AVENUE
LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA 24501

JOURNAL OF LYNCHBURG HISTORY 1800-1940

The collection by Virginia Carter Scott consists of loose-leaf pages of handwritten notes on Lynchburg, Va., history developed from seven locally-published sources.

VIRGINIA CARTER SCOTT (1907-1998)

Virginia Carter was born 16 January 1907 in Chatham, Pittsylvania County, Virginia, the daughter of Chesley Lanier Carter and Mary Belle Moon. She graduated from Chatham Hall in Chatham. She was the wife of Fontaine Herndon Scott. She served as president of the Lynchburg Garden Club, served on the Garden Club of Virginia Board, and the Child Care Center Board. She was active in the Lynchburg Junior League and the Colonial Dames.

Virginia Carter Scott died on 6 January 1998 in Lynchburg and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery.