

JONES MEMORIAL LIBRARY
2311 MEMORIAL AVENUE
LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA 24501

(434) 846-0501

HILDA LUDWICKE FORSBERG DAVIS (1880-1979) WORSHIP MATERIALS

The collection includes a program of leadership education, texts for worship services, and inspirational poems from various publications collected by Hilda Ludwicke (FORSBERG) DAVIS, a member of Court Street United Methodist Church, in Lynchburg, Virginia.

HILDA LUDWICKE FORSBERG DAVIS (1880-1879)

Hilda Ludwicke FORSBERG, daughter of Ludwig August FORSBERG and Mary Elizabeth MORGAN, was born 8 October 1880 in Lynchburg, Virginia. She graduated from Randolph-Macon Woman's College in Lynchburg and taught music and geometry in the Lynchburg public schools.

Hilda FORSBERG married 7 November 1914, in Lynchburg, John Henry DAVIS, son of John H. DAVIS and Mary PANNELL of Bassett, Virginia.

A member of Court Street United Methodist Church, Mrs. DAVIS was active in many church organizations. She was also president of the Old Dominion Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Hilda Ludwike (FORSBERG) DAVIS died 7 March 1979 and was buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery in Lynchburg.

[Obituary, Lynchburg News, 8 March 1979, Sect. C, p. 8 col. 1; Marriage Register, Lynchburg, VA, Book 5, p. 144; "Wedding of Hilda Forsberg and John Henry Davis," Lynchburg News, 8 November 1914, p. 7 col. 1; Burial record, Diuguid Funeral Home, Lynchburg, VA, Book 68, p. 218.]